

VEDERE GENERALA

A 3D architectural rendering of a three-story building. The building features a blue tiled roof with white trim and a central pediment. The facade is primarily light beige with white vertical columns and horizontal bands. The ground floor has a dark brown base. Numerous rectangular windows are visible across the upper floors. A small entrance with a white awning is located on the right side. Two white human figures are placed in the foreground on a paved area to provide a sense of scale. The sky is blue with light clouds.
